Pebble Beach's Laird Small named in Top 100

Laird Small, head golf professional at Spyglass Hill Golf Course at the Pebble Beach Resort, has been selected as one of America's top golf instructors by Golf Magazine. Small is one of only 100 professionals in the country to be awarded this honor in 1995.

Making Golf Magazine's Top 100 Teachers list is one of the most prestigious honors a golf professional can attain, and is an internationally recognized symbol of excellence. All 41 PGA of America sections and all 6 LPGA Teaching and Club Professional sections helped identify their region's finest. Also polled were numerous tour pros and golf industry veterans.

Laird Small is a consummate golf professional with a wealth of experience and an intrinsic love of the game. A native of Monterey, he has been playing golf since the age of ten and continually strives to improve upon his golf education. No one knows the award-winning courses at the prestigious Pebble Beach Resorts better than Small who, as senior head golf professional, has shared his expertise and dedication to the game with visitors for more than eight years. In addition to running the entire golf operation at Spyglass Hill, Small will be heading the new Pebble Beach Golf Academy which is scheduled to open in April, 1996.

"I am honored to receive this recognition," said Small, "I enjoy teaching, and I believe that my ability to coach, educate and share my knowledge with other golfers helps

Formal opening held for new fire station for Pebble Beach

A grand opening ceremony celebrating the new California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF) fire station just inside the Highway 1 gate in Del Monte Forest was held on January 12.

Demonstrations, memorabilia, refreshments and tours of the facility were provided. Most of the 23 station chiefs who have served as commanders of the unit over the past decades attended the event.

The new station, constructed on a 1.5 acre site donated by Pebble Beach Company, is the result of a public-private effort between the CDF, Cypress Fire Protection District, Pebble Beach Community Services District, Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula and Pebble Beach Company.

The station was previously located on Highway 68 next to Community Hospital.

Water District meeting slated to find new directions

The Monterey Peninsula Water Management District (MPWMD) Board of Directors will hold a special "town hall" meeting on community water supply goals on Wednesday, January 24, 1996 from 3-6 p.m. It will be held in Carpenter Hall, Sunset Center, Carmel-by-the Sea.

The January 24 meeting will be the first of two special meetings encouraging public participation to help determine future action to develop water supply alternatives that address Peninsula water needs. A second meeting on water supply alternatives is scheduled for February 8, 1996 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. at the Oldemeyer Center in Seaside.

According to MPWMD Senior Project Planner, Henrietta Stern, the purpose of the January 24 meeting is to encourage full and open community discussion of community water supply goals. Stern noted that among the issues to be discussed and explored include whether solutions to water problems should be comprehensive or phased in over time, whether water projects should solve regional problems or focus on local problems, and whether the community should develop new water supply facilities or increase water savings through more conservation. The amount of water that should be made available for growth will also be discussed, as well as public concerns and interests about project costs and environmental issues.

Interested members of the public should call the Water District at 649-4866 for more information.

DAVID BRYAN DARNELL

David Bryan Darnell, 38, of Monterey, died on January 11, 1996 from complications of meningitis.

Mr. Darnell was born in Charlotte, N.C. and resided in Monterey County for 20 years. He worked as a commercial fisherman aboard "Diana", and as a color copy specialist at Kinko's. He was a member of the Monterey Peninsula Yacht Club and had helped with their monthly newsletter.

During the late 70s and 80s, he was a drummer for several local rock bands, including the Medflies, who helped get Clint Eastwood elected as Mayor of Carmel with a song they recorded for his campaign. He took up sailing a year and a half ago and took sailing classes in hope of one day sailing his boat "Free to Be" to the Caribbean.

Survivors are: parents Charles and Betty Darnell of Charlotte, N.C., brother Darin of Norfolk, Va., sisters Donna Fries of Carmel, Debra Morris of Carmel Valley and Diane Porter of Marina, paternal grandmother Verna Darnell of Mira Loma, 2 nephews, 2 nieces, and several aunts and uncles.

Ashes will be scattered at sea by his family. Arrangements are under the direction of Monterey Peninsula Mortuary, Seaside.

Quincy Struve recommended for another award

by R. Walch

Quincy Struve, a Carmel High School senior, has been nominated to compete in the national Principal's Leadership Award Scholarship Program (PLA), sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP). The Principal's Leadership Award Program is funded by Herff Jones, Inc.

Eric Paulson, principal, Carmel High School, announced the nomination, which places Struve in the national competition. One hundred fifty national PLA winners will be chosen this spring to receive $1000 college scholarships.

Principals in high schools throughout the country nominate one of their student leaders. Winners were selected based on their participation in service organizations, clubs and athletics; achievements in the arts and sciences; employment experience; and academic record. They also had to write an essay.

"Struve has demonstrated outstanding ability in her academic work and service to her school and community," said Dr. Timothy J. Dyer, executive director, NASSP. "She's a fine example of the outstanding caliber of young people in America's high schools."

While at Carmel High School, Struve has been student body President, captain of the girls' swim team and girls' soccer team, secretary/treasurer of the California

Scholarship Federation, and recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Citizenship Award. She hopes to attend the University of Washington this fall.

The Rules of this year's Girl Scout cookie sales

The annual Girl Scout cookie drive began January 12 with more than 3000 girl members of Girl Scouts of Monterey Bay taking orders for some eight different varieties of cookies.

A national tradition and the primary fundraiser for Girl Scouts, the cookie drive will continue through mid-March. Advance orders will be taken until January 28. Beginning February 10, girls will deliver their orders. Booth sales at locales throughout Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz counties will run February 17 through March 17.

All cookie profits will stay with the Girl Scouts of Monterey Bay. Last year, more than 250,000 boxes (4.5 million cookies) were sold to raise $450,000 for Girl Scout programs and activities in the three counties.

Cookie orders are also being taken at the Girl Scouts of Monterey Bay office in Castroville, 372-8048, 633-4877 or 1-800-mbgirls.

At last we have some answers to the Next Annual CVLL Trivia Quiz put to you several weeks ago. We have omitted the answer to the last question -- can you name all the kids on your T-ball team -- and we have also eliminated question number nine because our notes on who played on which teams have momentarily disappeared themselves. However, we'll share the following with you:

1. The Tigers were the team to beat in 1995. 2. It has been 21 years since a CVLL playoff team has gone as far as our 11 and 12 year olds went last year - a great showing. 3. Brice Matson hit at least a box of perfectly good balls over the fences to qualify as the Home Run King for 1995. 4. If you wanted to keep your money in your pocket, you needed to hide from Gabriella Buich, our fearsome fundraiser. Great job. 5. Nick Gamero was, and still is, head honcho of the Softball League. 6. This column fearlessly predicts that the Pennington-Priano Indians will take top honors in the majors in 1996. 7. It was the Yankees who were the surprise team of Pony League in the arctic environment of CMS. 8. As for the winter baseball league, thank Winners and the Salinas Peppers for a fine opportunity provided our off-season stars.

Once again, some important dates: Carmel Valley Little League Sign-ups will be held from 7-9 p.m. at the Tularcitos Multi-Purpose Room on Friday evening, January 26, and again from 9 a.m. to noon the following day, Saturday, January 27, same location. Majors and minors will cost $65, T-ball will be $45 and $15 will be added for anyone signed up after February 15. Scholarships are available. Please watch for flyers handed out at the local schools. Representatives from softball will also take sign-ups at those times. Call Nick Gamero at 659-2485 for further information.

Tryouts will be held on February 10 and 17 starting at 9 a.m. at the Little League Park, and further information will be available at the time of registration. All players ages 9 and up are welcome to try out. Any player 10 or older who wishes to play on the majors and who is not presently assigned to a team must try out. No nine year olds will be accepted on major league teams. The draft will be held on February 24, a day also set aside as a rain day for tryouts.

Please note: your child's Little League age is determined by his or her age on July 31. If Susie was born on August 1, 1985, she is a Little League 10 year old. Had she been born on the 31st of July, she would be a Little League 11.

Parents and friends of Little League, you do not have to meet minimum or maximum age requirements to help out around the park. As a matter of fact, there is a workday scheduled at the park on January 20, starting at nine. Please bring whatever tools you can, a large jar of elbow grease, and a heap of dedication. We need you there. Thanks.

Cachagua woman joins County Planning Commission

Supervisor Sam Karas, District Five, is pleased to announce that he is appointing Ileene Crane-Franks of Cachagua to fill the vacancy on the Monterey County Planning Commission created by Mo Orrett's retirement.

"This selection of Ms. Franks was based on her excellent knowledge of many vital issues that are confronting the Commission," according to Karas, "For years she has been actively involved with various local organizations and is currently serving as President of the Carmel Valley Property Owners' Association. Other important considerations were the need for greater gender balance on the Planning Commission and recognition of the Cachagua area."

Regional Park Board elects new officers

At their regular monthly meeting in January, the Monterey Peninsula Regional Park District Board of Directors elected new Officers for the 1996 calendar year. Zad Leavy (Ward 5: South Pebble Beach, Carmel, Carmel Valley, and Big Sur.) was elected President. Ira J. Lively (Ward 2: Seaside and Sand City) was elected Vice-President and Mary Dainton (Ward 4: North Pebble Beach and Pacific Grove) was elected as Secretary/Treasurer. Other Board members include Patricia Hutchins (Ward 1: Marina) and Judi Lehman (Ward 3: Monterey and Del Rey Oaks).

The Board voted 3-2 to expand multi-use trails in Garland Park.

Bicyclists, equestrians and hikers will be allowed to use the Snively's Ridge trail and the recently acquired Hitchcock Preserve once District staff develops, and the Board approves, an Implementation Plan. Details of the plan will include a reservation system, volunteer patrol program, and increased citation fines to $200. The Board also directed District staff to coordinate the implementation plan with affected neighbors.

The plan is expected to be ready for presentation to the Board in June when the public will be allowed to comment. The Board reiterated its commitment to continue the restriction of bicycles from the center portion of the park. All current regulations and restrictions of mountain bicycles will remain in full force until final approval by the Board. District staff was directed to strictly enforce current rules, the violation of which results in a citation.

Voting for expanded multi-use were Directors Hutchins, Lively and Dainton. Voting against were Directors Lehman and Leavy.

LITTLE BY LITTLE,
OUR WATERS ARE LOOKING
LESS LIKE ART
AND MORE LIKE TRASH.

There are toxic chemicals in our water. Such as oil. And pesticides.

You might think industry is to blame. But they're only part of the problem. You and I, in our everyday lives, are also responsible for a tremendous amount of water pollution.

However, we can all help protect our water. For example, use less toxic household cleaners and practice natural lawn care by composting and using fewer chemicals. And instead of pouring used motor oil onto the ground or into storm drains, simply take it to a gasoline station where it can be recycled.

To find out more, call 1-800-504-8484, and we'll send you additional information on how you can help protect our rivers, lakes and oceans.

That way we can turn this terrible tide around. And restore the beauty to our water.

CLEAN WATER.
IF WE ALL DO A LITTLE,
WE CAN DO A LOT.

AS THE RIVER RUNS

Norman Spaulding

Some thoughts on why we live here in Pebble Beach, Carmel-by-the Sea, Carmel Valley and the South Coast.

We live here for pristine skies, the trickle and roar of our streams and rivers, the thunder of the ocean's surf at the center of our own Monterey Bay Sanctuary, the touch of wilderness close to our doorsteps, the love and gentleness of our neighbors and the nature that surrounds us, and a sense of cultured civilization embracing the startling gifts of mother nature around us.

For each, our own private motives, we share this special space; some to golf, some to work, some to hunt, some to create, some to simply inhale the joy of living in this special place free to pursue our private thoughts and desires.

Most of us came to get away from: fast food shops, huge shopping malls, litter on the roads and by-ways, glitter, neon and the traumas of ordinary urban and suburban mediocrity, and the plain pleasure of awakening to the joy of our vistas and natural sounds.

Few of us can trace our local roots past the 20th century. 'Tis a fragile landscape well preserved for us to enjoy. We share a responsibility to carefully steward this land with a careful eye on the history we create for centuries and generations to come.

Surrounded by parks and vital natural resources we must continue to embrace on land what we have done with the Monterey Bay Sanctuary.

This is a very special place and those of us who reside here are very special people.

Over the past 19 years we have spent $30 million in a fruitless effort to build a dam, which would theoretically store sufficient water to over-develop and over-populate our precious land; without consideration for air quality, sewage, traffic or mother nature.

During these 19 years we have learned to use so much less water that the dam is not really necessary. And if we do not need the dam, we just may not need the $2 million per year expense to support the Monterey Peninsula Water Management District.

Pebble Beach and Rancho San Carlos have shown restraint in their "final" buildout plans. Do you want the entire Valley built out like the mouth of the Valley, or with multi-colored condos and apartments sprinkled on the hillsides?

Maintaining the character and natural wonder we enjoy is only a question of our responsible stewardship of the land.

If so, please join in making your views known. Today. The (stated) deadline for receipt of public comments was January 12.

Pebble Beach Company claims the right to build 890 units, but they have no entitlement. What they do have is a blueprint for 890 units. Instead, PBC's new ownership now asks to build the Forest's 9th golf course, 16 subdivisions with 403 units (revised draft environmental report figure, not mine), a golf teaching center and public driving range, and a wood processing operation. All are proposed without PBC being required

WHAT'S NEXT? Mel Vercoe

Well, heck. I was going to call my novel, "The Return of the Grapes of Wrath", with descendants of the dust bowl migration trying to borrow money for gas to get to some place like Kansas, on account of the Salinas Valley going to pot because of seawater intrusion.

So, now I'll have to call it "Back to 1929". I'll let some more ambitious author use some title like, "The Decline and Fall of the American Empire", which would involve gads and gads of hard work, interviewing people going up elevators to jump out of windows on account of the stock market collapsing, etc.

I'd prefer to deal with human interest accounts, like rich parents losing their companies, and having to move in with their hippie offspring who are growing pot in national forests.

America came a long way in the 67 years since 1929. We've more than doubled our population. We proved that capitalism would probably work, if we could find some way to get our great leaders to put their personal interests in second or third place, instead of in first place ahead of essential national survival needs.

And, no other country can question our determination to stay out in front of other nations, proving to them that we are the greatest, and the richest, even when we are deeper in debt than all other nations combined.

to build even one new arterial or service road. Cosmetic changes will be required, which we are promised will mitigate an estimated 80% increase in traffic. PBC has successfully focused debate on where their golf course should be built and in doing so has divided the community on that issue. In my view, the debate should be on whether another resort course should be built and how will the buildout, in its totality, affect the quality of life for residents already adversely impacted.

If you have read the 600 page RDEIR, you will find the primary bases for traffic analysis are the "Crowell Report" (1983) and the PBC

So, I'll be looking at an America slowly awakening to the sad fact that we, all of us, made a little mistake, thinking that the "system" could run itself, with only a third of us taking part at election time instead of all of us, and expecting all of the little details to be taken care of by somebody else.

Now, it's too late. By some miracle, including common sense showing up in places where it's rarely been seen, we might avert all-out national bankruptcy. Otherwise, I expect that "Back to 1929" could be a best seller, except that nobody will have enough money to buy it.

Hold everything. Everything's changed. Word just came in. We are launching another spaceship from Canaveral, so there must be a lot of money available that nobody knew about. Dare we hope that this flight may discover some intelligent life that can be brought back to the U.S., just in time to save the Dow-Jones averages.

LETTERS to the Editor

Begging for Quiet in Pebble Beach

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

Are you concerned about increased traffic and noise, now, in our once quiet residential area, even before the buildout?

funded Barton Aschman Report (1992), which has not even been made public for scrutiny. Since 1983, Forest development has been significant: hundreds of new homes and up-sizing older homes; PBC/Lone Cypress Corporation Yard & Quarry, Poppy Hills G.C., driving range and restaurant; complex at Spanish Bay; water reclamation project; more special events; and expansions to Stevenson School, Community Services and PB Lodge. The cumulative, adverse impact of traffic and noise has not been objectively measured - using unbiased, accepted scientific standards since 1983, before all development mentioned above.

I have only cited the problems of traffic and noise. You may well have your own concerns, like the loss of 38,000 trees, down from PBC's original estimate of 57,000 only because of public outcry. Please share those views today. Ask that a new comprehensive traffic and noise study be required. Write to Mrs. Juliana Rebagliati-Rose, County Planning, P.O. Box 1208, Salinas, Ca. 93902 and copy Supervisor Sam Karas, 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey, Ca. 93940.

A Voice Against Tourists and Growth

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

Conspiracy is an ugly word and perhaps it doesn't fit this situation anyway, but I stumbled across a plan that made me write this letter.

There is a group of well meaning citizens who are bent on turning Carmel Valley into another play pen for the western hemisphere. I speak of the folks that are constantly planning events to drag larger and larger crowds to the area, filling the recreation center and pool with outsiders, crowding the road out here with serpentine lines of traffic and calling attention to our quiet little area in the name of development.

I pay a property tax for the recreation center, but there is nothing going on there for me to enjoy. The pool is so full of strangers that you can't even get into it on a hot summer day. Some of the noise festivals that have taken place in the park are so loud and unpleasant that I have sound proofed my house to escape the pollution.

The most recent plan is to build a toilet in the park so that visitors from a long way off won't have to leave early to be comfortable. I expect to see some sign of this latest outrage on my tax bill next year. Oh yes there are the sidewalks. At first there were a couple and they were placed where they were needed, but lately they are covering the streets with the things where people are never seen walking. There is one that goes down Pilot road that looks like a launching strip for a disaster. It goes nowhere except out into a blind curve on the valley road. Perfect place to kill a skateboarder.

They could better use the energy and materials to build the kids a place to skate board off the road and out of everybody's way. Only thing though they would probably advertise it and soon the outsiders would crowd all our locals off the thing.

None of this really bothers me as much as the latest development. Bill Wood, a long time valley resident and neighbor of mine passed on and left in trust for the Robles del Rio meadow a large sum of money to be used to keep the meadow up and help with the expenses of mowing, tree trimming and that sort of thing.

Well after we heard the will read guess what. Somebody had left the door to the chicken coop open and this group of eager beaver developers might end up with the money. So instead of the money being used for what Mr. Wood wanted it used for it will enhance the war chest of the bunch that want to invite everybody that can drive, bike or jog to come and play in our sand box. Trouble is the sand box is full already.

Says trees are more important than power

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

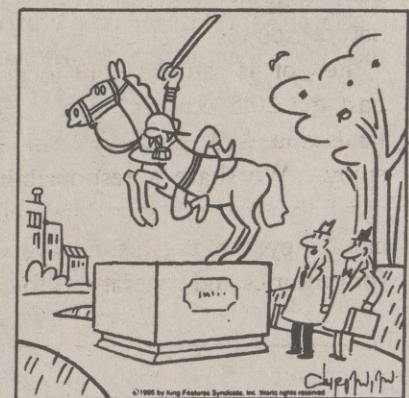

The article by Norman Spaulding in the 28 December "Sun" blasting "Killer Trees" for PG&E's difficulties in dealing with storm power outages last month was alarmingly incorrect with regard to the status of pines and cypresses on the Monterey Peninsula. Of the three genera of trees pinpointed as introduced weeds by Mr. Spaulding, only one - Eucalyptus - is in fact non-native to the area, having been imported from Australia. The other two, Pinus and Cupressus, are native genera that have covered the hills and coastal outcroppings of the Monterey Peninsula for thousands of years, admired by almost everyone (except, apparently, Mr. Spaulding) since the Spanish explorers came in the early 17th century.

Mr. Spaulding's error would perhaps be excusable were it not for the fact that the pines and cypresses he decries include threatened species with extremely limited distributions.

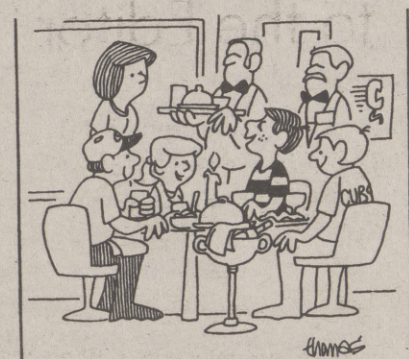

The Monterey Pine, for example, is only found naturally in three mainland areas of the California Coast: Ano Nuevo, Cambria, and the Monterey Peninsula, for which it is named. Even more restricted are two species of local cypresses, the Gowen Cypress, found only on Huckleberry Hill in the Del Monte forest and near Gibson Creek just south of Point Lobos, and the Monterey Cypress, found only along Seventeen Mile Drive between Point Cypress and Pescadero Point and at Point Lobos, where their presence was one of the primary reasons for establishing this reserve. Given the precarious status of these species, Mr. Spaulding's article characterizing them as weeds that should be removed before they fall and kill us all is unfortunate, to say the least.

Perhaps Mr. Spaulding has mistakenly transmitted information he was told while visiting one of several areas in the world such as Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa where Monterey Pines have been extensively planted for lumber. In such localities, they are perhaps justified as being condemned as weeds attributable (indirectly at least) to European immigrants. But this is not the case here, where they deserve our respect as threatened endemics as well as often stunningly beautiful trees.

COMPUTER TALK

BBS in this area.

In the last part we had a short introduction to the BBS of general public interest in this area and briefly looked at BBS-Carmel (622-1000) and Cricket (373-3773). Today we consider El Observador (372-9054), Nitelog (655-1096) and Seaside BBS (899-6397).

El Observador: since I last logged in a few months ago they have acquired an "adult" section. Looks like adult activities are becoming very popular, but then adults don't bawl like kids nor bite like dogs. They just sit, watch, and fry/steam/roast/broil. So why not more harmless activities for "adults"?

The first thing that greets you on E.O. is a fairly extensive report of a failed Denver court case involving the Church of Scientology. Then you become aware of a large number of choices: read mail, news bulletins, look at files, engage in chat. The files are located under various headings: general interest files (education, games, entertainment), computer files (programs of many kinds), zines (hacking, viruses, conspiracies, phone "phun", satanists), wacky and weird files (fringe science, musical lyrics); enough to keep you very busy until your login time expires and you get dumped. What you see is merely text, no color, and navigating the system takes time and patience. There is much online reading to do to decide what to do next. However, with practice, this problem reduces.

Nitelog is by far the largest BBS in the area. It has monthly charges and several facilities such as a computer software archive, an Internet E-Mail facility, and lots and lots and lots of "adult" files. To be precise last week it had 16,885 of them. Think of it. Gaze at each sizzling picture for 30 seconds and it will take you over 140 steamy hours to see the lot. That takes some planning ahead so you should have your surgeon standing by with a replacement pacemaker.

When you connect you are asked for your name, address, age, phone numbers and to agree to abide by the rules which it displays. If you claim to be an adult you will be asked to give an "electronic signature" testifying to your age, etc. and immediately, you will be asked how you want to pay. If you decline you will be shown a few more screens of information about the e-mail, Internet, conferencing (written) and other services. Soon you will be given another opportunity to use your credit card and shown the way out if you decline. There are no voice tests so twelve year old boys need only a credit card number and a towel for the perspiration. Nitelog shares the same site with the Redshift Internet Service and WebSite.

"We firmly believe that the best instructors are the ones that are held in esteem by the greatest cross-section of golfers," said John Chadwell, Vice President and General Manager of The Inn and Links at Spanish Bay. "With so many exceptional instructors around, the fact that Laird Small was selected as one of the best in the country is indeed a tribute to his excellent teaching abilities."

Small was also instrumental in the development of the AT&T Pebble Beach Junior golf Association and is now president. Other topics of discussion include:
